This juried show takes place on the second block Maple Street on the "Sawney Lot" which backs up to Webb School where Boy Scouts will be parking cars allowing easy access to the featured mainstay of the show. This upscale craft show is the perfect place to find the perfect gift going into the holiday season. This show has become an annual pilgrimage for many attracting followers that would have made even the Beatles envious! And speaking of the Beatles, there will be live music throughout the weekend so you can work off some of those good eats with some good timing, toe tapping, hand clapping music.

This unique event dates back to 1976 and though the Webb Art & Craft Show has stayed true and steady, others around town have also added more booths to yards and areas within Bell Buckle making this one of the largest events in the state of Tennessee with over 800 booths showcasing their wares for the weekend.

This Show has grown to such proportions in recent years that the Bell Buckle Chamber of Commerce has started putting up a map on their Facebook page to show visitors the best places to park as well as locations for handicap parking, porta toilets, first aid stations, and so forth. Please be sure to reference the Bell Buckle Chamber Facebook page or www.bellbucklechamber.com to help you plan your day as well as to help navigate through some of the traffic that also comes with the weekend. The city streets will be closed to traffic but open for fun all weekend!
