Fall weather is finally back! And everyone knows what that ushers in – the fan favorite Bell Buckle Webb Art & Craft Show! Every third weekend in October, the picturesque town of Bell

Buckle, Tennessee hosts over 500 artists and crafters for a fall show that never fails to impress and wow. Not to mention the amazing food vendors; it's like an around the world food court with all the different cuisine offerings!

Join the fun on Saturday, October 17th and Sunday, October 19th for the 49th Annual Bell Buckle Webb Art & Craft Show. The original juried show can be found on Maple Street on the big open lot. The Downtown Show is located behind the downtown shops on the Event Lot off the downtown alley. Yes, yes, we know, we know, everyone thinks the Webb Art & Craft Show is every booth in every area. And it kind of is!

So get those Christmas shopping lists together, because everyone is on the good list this year. And get those walking shoes broken in, because there is so much to see and explore. And get those calls and texts to your favorite friends done, because this event is even more fun with the ones you love being with. And most of all get ready to have fun and enjoyment, because Bell Buckle hosts the most unique shops and booths of just about anywhere around!

The Bell Buckle shops will be in high holiday gear too. Every day gifts, holiday gifts, that one of a kind, unique shopping experience that can't be found in just any old shop is in Bell Buckle all year but with gusto on Webb Art & Craft Show weekend. There will be original paintings, woodworks, handmade jewelry, forged iron, stained glass, metal works, textiles, and all the imagination can stand! The aroma of all the food trucks will have you munching your way through the show. And if you need a little break to let those feet rest a bit, there is always the hay bale seating on the original Webb Art & Craft Show lot on Maple Street. People watching can be an experience in and of itself right there!

The Bell Buckle Chamber of Commerce Facebook page will have parking maps loaded the week of the event. Please be sure to check the maps as parking can fill up fast. Parking lots are not associated with the Bell Buckle Chamber nor the Town of Bell Buckle, but we are told to expect to pay $10 to park at most lots. The map will also include the location of ATMs, First Aid, and Lost & Found. The Bell Buckle Chamber of Commerce booth located at the entrance to the Webb Art & Craft Festival is also there to help answer questions. City streets will be closed to vehicular traffic but open for fun the entire weekend!

The perfect show, the perfect place, the perfect town for it all! Visitors can't get enough of the Bell Buckle Webb Art & Craft Show and all there is to experience. The Show works so well because of the high standards of artisans, the small town friendliness, and because, well, it's Bell Buckle!
